

The Pomona Pride Center, Inc. (the Center) would like to invite citizens of all ages to participate in our Logo Art Contest. Residents of Pomona are strongly encouraged to participate. We are a new non-profit organization that is committed to serving the LGBTQ+ community of Pomona and surrounding areas. (LGBTQ+ means: Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans, Queer/Questioning + all other including but not limited to allies and supporters.)

- The Mission and Purpose of the Pomona Pride Center is to support LGBTQ+ people to thrive as healthy, equal and complete individuals while creating a safe and inclusive community.

The Pomona Pride Center Board of Directors will select one Winner and two Finalist's logos from the pool eligible entries in our Logo Art Contest. Finalists logos may also be used for marketing purposes, on social media and at the discretion of the organization. The winning artist will also receive a special shout recognition on our official website and social media! All artwork may be on display at the center and the winning artwork will become the official logo for the Pomona Pride Center.

Please review the information below as it outlines the requirements for submitting original art entries. Entries can be e-mailed to info@PomonaPrideCenter.org or arrangements can be made for entries to be picked up and or dropped off at the Center. THE DEADLINE TO SUBMIT ENTRIES is FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15th, 2019. Please note that folded artwork will not be accepted.

We appreciate your time and willingness to participate in our logo art contest. We feel every entry is a potential winner and look forward to seeing the talented artwork. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Center at: 909-326-0482
